GRAIN AND PROVISIONS. Wheat Market is Active and Closes Higher.

Chicago. Feb. 7.—At the outset trade in wheat was marked by some excitement, occasioned by an advance at Liverpool quite agreeable to the bullish hopes roused by the heavy export sales yesterday. May opened %0% e higher at 75%, and, on buying by commission houses and overing by shorts, rallied during the irst half hour to 75% 675%. At this Liverool anagoniced that the advance or that die was due to buying by Americans, the market hereupon became flat and the car contingent, assisted by discouraged quidation on the part of longs, sent May own to 74% 6747%. The pressure on the celline was very moderate, but the de-

Oats were dult and featurcless. May losed a shade up at 25% 25% 25%. Provisions ruled dull but firm and featureless. May pork closed unchanged, and lard and ribs cach 25% higher. The feating tutures reamon as tollows:
